Mission Statement

Museums Alaska supports museums and cultural centers in Alaska and enhances public understanding of their value.

Organization History

Museums Alaska is a statewide professional association that strengthens museums and cultural centers and enhances public understanding of their value through training, networking, professional development opportunities, grant programs, and advocacy. The organization began as a committee of the Alaska Historical Society in the late 1970s and became a non-profit organization [501(c)(3)] in 1983. Over the past four decades, Museums Alaska has steadily strengthened its operations and services and in 2020 hired its first full-time director to further grow the organization. Museums Alaska provides services to museums, cultural organizations, and professionals across Alaska. Members represent a diverse group of professionals, students, consultants, and museum enthusiasts who are interested in caring for and sharing Alaska's heritage. The organization supports an average of 150 members in communities from Nome to Ketchikan and many others who participate in events, programs, and trainings hosted by Museums Alaska. To advance its mission, Museums Alaska acts as a clearinghouse for information about Alaska's cultural institutions and their activities, advocates for museums at the state and national levels, develops opportunities and resources for professional education, and maintains an innovative grant program.

Provenance and Eligibility

PLEASE ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS FIRST. They will help you ensure the artwork you wish to purchase is eligible for this grant program.

The artwork conforms to the Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990.

The materials used in the artwork conform to current federal and state regulations concerning prohibited paleontological and archaeological materials.

The artwork reflects the artist's heritage and is not an appropriation of another cultural tradition.

Could the artwork be considered sacred art?

If your artwork reflects a heritage other than the artist's own heritage or may be considered sacred art, please do one or more of the following in this space:

- Address why it is an appropriate use of another cultural tradition, and not cultural appropriation.
- Address why this particular sacred artwork is an appropriate artwork to include in your collection and/or display publicly.

This work was made by an artist who is currently living in Alaska.

This work was made by an artist who is alive today or died within the past calendar year.

The artist has an established history of selling, showing, or teaching.

Was the artwork created in the last five years, or will be completed in the future?

For public art or other commissions, when is the artwork estimated to be completed and installed?

From whom are you purchasing the artwork? (artist, gallery, private citizen)

Please provide the provenance of the artwork, insofar as possible (including date of composition, places and dates of showings, awards and dates, and previous owners).

Narrative

Please answer the following questions to show the panel that your organization:

- Uses an unbiased, collaborative method of choosing or commissioning new pieces for your collection,
- Has a clear understanding on how the artwork will fit into and improve your collection and educational goals,
- Has done research into and feels that the price of the piece is fair, and
- Has a clear plan for how the artwork will be cared for and shared with the public.

TIP: Click on the question marks next to each section for guiding questions.

Briefly describe the artwork your organization would like to purchase.

Public Art Questions

If you are commissioning a public artwork, please answer the following questions.

ALL public art applicants must answer this question—regardless of where the art will be located:

Please upload a timeline for the creation of your public art commission. Please include when payments will be disbursed to the artist.

No File Uploaded

ALL public art applicants must answer this question—regardless of where the art will be located:

How will you care for the public artwork in the long-term, and how will this conservation and care be funded?

(1500 character limit)

Will this artwork be located on property your organization owns? If not, please complete the following questions.

If your commission will be located on property that your organization does not own, please upload a copy of the agreement with the property owner here.

The agreement should indicate who the owner of the artwork is, terms around the installation of the artwork, who is responsible for the long-term care of the artwork, how long the artwork can stay on the property, how the artwork will be removed at the end of its lifespan or the end of the agreement, and how the agreement can be amended in the future, if necessary.

No File Uploaded

Please write a short summary of the attached agreement here—specifically, how long the agreement will last, who will own the artwork, who will be responsible for security and maintenance of the artwork, and any other pertinent details.
